

Media Advisory

For Immediate Release

Oct. 12, 2021

For More Information:

Madison Snow

Aiding Animals Club Founder

(214) 912-5968

madisonsnow1233@gmail.com

Aiding Animals announces their arrival on the University of Oklahoma's Norman campus.

Who: Madison Snow, founder and public relations spokesperson for Aiding Animals.

What: Snow will announce the start of a new club on campus that seeks to decrease the number of stray animals in Norman, OK by 25% by the end of 2022. This will be done through a press conference.

Where: 900 Asp Ave. Norman, OK 73019. Located at the Oklahoma Memorial Union, outside of the main entrance facing Asp St.

When: Friday, Dec. 10, 6 p.m.- 6:30 p.m.

How: Any person who wants more information regarding the new club on campus may attend the press conference. A virtual option, live streamed through social media, will be available for those who are uncomfortable attending in person. You can find out more about this option by emailing madisonsnow1233@gmail.com.

About Aiding Animals

The Aiding Animals club is based out of Norman, Oklahoma and is centered around the University of Oklahoma's students. Founded by a group of driven young adults, this club is working to help decrease the number of stray animals in their community through philanthropy, fundraising, and education. Aiding Animals is taking a necessary step in the right direction to give back to the animals that live in the community.

###